Baptist Faith and Message

Article I. The Scriptures

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

Exodus 24:4; Deuteronomy 4:1-2; 17:19; Joshua 8:34; Psalms 19:7-10; 119:11, 89, 105, 140; Isaiah 34:16; 40:8; Jeremiah 15:16; 36:1-32; Matthew 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Romans 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

Article II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

God the Father God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ, He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever-present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Savior, and effects regeneration. Now of regeneration, He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

Article III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love. Genesis 1:26-30; 2:5,7,18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalms 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isaiah 6:5; Jeremiah 17:5; Matthew 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Romans 1:19-32; 3:10-18,23; 5:6,12,19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18,29; 1 Corinthians 1:21-31; 15:19,21-22; Ephesians 2:1-22; Colossians 1:21-22; 3:9-11.

Article IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Savior.

B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.

C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerating person's life.

D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed. Genesis 3:15; Exodus 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matthew 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22-28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14,29; 3:3-21,36; 5:24; 10:9,28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Romans 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18,29-39; 10:9-10,13; 13:11-14; 1 Corinthians 1:18,30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17-20; Galatians 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Ephesians 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Philippians 2:12-13; Colossians 1:9-22; 3:1ff.; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24; 2 Timothy 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8,14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6-2:11; Revelation 3:20; 21:1-22:5.

Article V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility. All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-8; 1 Samuel 8:4-7,19-22; Isaiah 5:1-7; Jeremiah 31:31ff.; Matthew 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22,31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45,65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6,12,17-18; Acts 20:32; Romans 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7,26-36; 1 Corinthians 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Ephesians 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Colossians 1:12-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:13-14; 2 Timothy 1:12; 2:10,19; Hebrews 11:39-12:2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:2-5,13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2.

Article VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture. The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

Matthew 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42,47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23,27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Romans 1:7; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11,21; 5:22-32; Philippians 1:1; Colossians 1:18; 1 Timothy 2:9-14; 3:1-15; 4:14; Hebrews 11:39-40; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Revelation 2-3; 21:2-3.

Article VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Savior, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper. The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12.

Article VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:8-11; Matthew 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3,33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1,19-28; Acts 20:7; Romans 14:5-10; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2; Colossians 2:16; 3:16; Revelation 1:10.

Article IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come, and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 9:6-7; Jeremiah 23:5-6; Matthew 3:2; 4:8-10,23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Romans 5:17; 8:19; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28; Colossians 1:13; Hebrews 11:10,16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Revelation 1:6,9; 5:10; 11:15; 21-22.

Article X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Article XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8,16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 3:1-11; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Timothy 4:5; Hebrews 2:1-3; 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Revelation 22:17.

Article XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people. In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deuteronomy 4:1,5,9,14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Nehemiah 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalms 19:7ff.; 119:11; Proverbs 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7,11; 15:14; Ecclesiastes 7:19; Matthew 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1

Article XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Genesis 14:20; Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 8:18; Malachi 3:8-12; Matthew 6:1-4,19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21,42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Romans 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Corinthians 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Corinthians 8-9; 12:15; Philippians 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19.

Article XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Article XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16,43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1; Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8.

Article XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war. The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Article XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Genesis 1:27; 2:7; Matthew 6:6-7, 24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Romans 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Galatians 5:1, 13; Philippians 3:20; 1 Timothy 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19.

Article XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption. Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race. The husband and wife are of equal worth before God since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation. Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

Genesis 1:26-28; 2:15-25; 3:1-20; Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Joshua 24:15; 1 Samuel 1:26-28; Psalms 51:5; 78:1-8; 127; 128; 139:13-16; Proverbs 1:8; 5:15-20; 6:20-22; 12:4; 13:24; 14:1; 17:6; 18:22; 22:6, 15; 23:13-14; 24:3; 29:15, 17; 31:10-31; Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; 9:9; Malachi 2:14-16; Matthew 5:31-32; 18:2-5; 19:3-9; Mark 10:6-12; Romans 1:18-32; 1 Corinthians 7:1-16; Ephesians 5:21-33; 6:1-4; Colossians 3:18-21; 1 Timothy 5:8, 14; 2 Timothy 1:3-5; Titus 2:3-5; Hebrews 13:4; 1 Peter 3:1-7.

It is your responsibility to keep your child's records up to date. All children must be current with all vaccinations (no waivers) to attend LCCA. Immunization records must be submitted before the child may be admitted to the program.

Temporary immunization records may be allowed only at the discretion of the LCCA administration prior to admittance to the program.

Health Issues

Please keep your child at home when they display any of the following symptoms: fever (99 degrees or more), upset stomach, rash, sore throat, cough, or runny nose. Your child should be free of fever or other symptoms for 24 hours. It is up to the Director's and School Age Coordinator's discretion when to send a child home.

Medical Emergencies

In case of a medical emergency with a child, an immediate attempt will be made to notify the parent, or the parent designate. If the parent cannot be reached, or if the situation warrants, an attempt will be made to contact the child's doctor for advice. If medically necessary, emergency services may be summoned to transport the child to appropriate facilities to receive medical assistance.

Contagious Diseases

Many contagious diseases start with a common cold. Examples of contagious diseases other than those noted under "Health Issues" include pink eye, rashes, lice, etc. Should your child have a contagious disease, please let his/her teacher know immediately so that other parents can be notified. We will not disclose the names of children.

Absences

It is imperative that we be notified by 2:00 pm if your child is not to be picked up. We cannot leave school until every child is accounted for. This not only delays our departure but can also hold up other vehicles picking up their children. There will be a $10 fee charged if we have to call you because we have arrived at the school and your child is not present.

Security

All exterior doors are locked and will remain locked throughout the day. In order to enter the building, individuals must be buzzed into the building by authorized LCCA or FBCLC staff through the doorbell and video system. All parents, students and visitors must enter through the church entrance and check into the front academy office between 8:45 am – 2:45 pm. Entrance into the building does not grant permission to pick up a student. Anyone picking a student up must be on the authorized release form. Our academy uses security cameras to surveillance the campus.

Toys, Games, etc.

These articles need to be kept at home unless you check with your teacher first. We cannot be held responsible for lost or broken toys. We implement a very diversified program and have on hand all supplies needed.

Electronic Devices

We do not allow children to bring in electronic devices (cell phone, iPod, MP3 player, etc.). On occasion, special days are allocated for “Electronics’ Day”. Please check with the School Age Care Coordinator for details. The Academy will not be responsible for lost or damaged electronics.

Field Trip Hours (Summer)

Check your child’s schedule. Please have your child here by 9:30 am on field trip days, unless otherwise posted. We use the mornings to put on sunscreen, go over plans for the day, bathroom breaks, and morning snack. Ask your teacher the expected time of arrival back at the church. We will never be later than 4:30 pm unless you are given something in writing. If you arrive after our bus has left for the field trip, your child will have to be brought to the office to see if they may stay in the facility with one of the remaining classes.

Quiet time (Summer):

We will observe 1 hour of quiet time each day after lunch or late in the afternoon after field trips. Your child may rest, bring a book to read, do art, play a board game, or other quiet activity. Remember, the children will be out in the heat, some will have long days, and we will keep them active. This will give their bodies time to rest and cool down.

Termination

The following situations will necessitate the removal of a child from the program:

1. Aggressive behavior which threatens the safety and well-being of self-and/or others in the program. Well-being can be defined as emotional as well as physical.
2. A child requiring constant 1-on-1 attention from the teacher.
3. A child showing disrespect toward a teacher or another child.
4. Non-payment.
5. A child’s (or the parent’s) failure to abide by and act in conformity with the Statement of Faith.

Withdrawing from the Program

In order to withdraw a student from the program, you must submit the LCCA withdrawal form 30 days prior to your child's last day. The withdrawal form can be found at Withdrawal Form or at www.lccatn.org under the parent portal. Any balances or tuition due through the required notice must be made at the time your notice is given.

Drop off Procedure

Parents must walk their child into the building when dropping them off. Parents must sign their child in and make eye contact with the teacher. This is for your student's safety.

Pick up Procedure:

1. Parents should notify the Academy Office in advance if anyone not listed on the child's application is to pick up. The designated adult will be asked to provide a photo ID.
2. Release of a child to a natural parent will not be denied unless a legal custody document prohibiting such release is on file in the Academy office.
3. In the event of impairment or risky behavior, someone else will be notified to pick up child. If we are met with resistance 911 will be called immediately.
4. Parents are to sign their child out and make eye contact with the Teacher before leaving.
5. A child will only be released to an adult. Please do not send older siblings in for a child.
6. It is the policy of LCCA to only release students to individuals documented on the student's authorized pick up list. Transportation changes will need to be adjusted in FACTS or communicated to the academy office, 865-986-6716.

Ridesharing services such as Uber and Lyft or any commercial transportation may not be used at LCCA. Uber and Lyft have policies specifically prohibiting people under the age of 18 from using apps or riding unaccompanied by an adult. There are numerous potential dangers associated with releasing students to unknown third parties. LCCA wants to ensure your child's safety by only releasing him/her to a responsible adult at the end of the day.

Closing Procedure

We close at 5:30 pm. A charge of $1.00 per minute will be added at 5:31 pm, you will be billed this amount. If you have an emergency, please call ahead so your child will not be worried.

Parking

Parents may park in designated parking spaces alongside the Education building and enter in through the playground doors when dropping off students before 8:45 am. Parents must enter through the church entrance between 8:45 am – 2:45 pm. Do not obstruct the entrance, double-park, or otherwise hinder the flow of traffic or endanger others. Never leave your car engine running while you bring your child into the building and never leave small children unattended in your car while in the building. Leaving a child in the car could jeopardize your child's enrollment.

Emergency/Evacuation Plan

When severe weather warnings are issued by the National Weather Service for tornadoes, severe thunderstorms, etc., or if evacuation of the center becomes necessary for reasons other than fire, children in care will be taken to the secure area within the building as designated by the County Coordinator of the Emergency Management Agency.

If power or water is temporarily not available, the center will endeavor to remain open and operational if possible. We cannot, however, compromise the health and safety of the children. Parents may therefore be notified to pick up their children.

In the event of an evacuation, your child will be transported to a pre-authorized location. All children will be together at one of these churches. You will need a photo ID to pick up your child. In the case of a disaster, it is possible that your teacher or Director could still be at the center or with a child receiving emergency medical care. The LCCA Administration and the State of Tennessee Department of Education may be coordinating the children's pickup. Please keep updated through social media if possible and local media outlets, including radio and television.

Financial Integrity

Lenoir City Christian Academy undergoes an audit every year.

Conduct & Discipline

Children are to show respect in their day-to-day interactions with others. This includes teachers and children. Respect is shown through words, body language, and kindness. Hurtful words, hurtful looks, or physical altercations can be reasons for dismissal. Any physical aggression is an automatic office visit and parents will be notified at the end of the day. Lenoir City Christian Academy reserves the right to dismiss any child from enrollment if discipline becomes an issue.

Discipline is the training of a student to instill character development. This training is to help the student develop a pattern of Christian behavior, to produce self-control, to internalize values, and to give the student a moral compass. Lenoir City Christian Academy, a ministry of First Baptist Church Lenoir City, believes in the inerrancy of the Bible. Decisions will be based upon biblical principles. Effective discipline is one of the important functions of any school.

Expectations-

- Students should show Christ-like behavior and honor authority.
- Students should demonstrate respect to LCCA's faculty and staff (Romans 3:2)
- Students should demonstrate respect to fellow students (Ephesians 4:29, 32)
- Students should be respectful to LCCA property and property of others.

A parent/guardian who has a question concerning the decisions of any teacher should call the teacher to set up an appointment and discuss the matter with the teacher. Parents/guardians should not plan on discussing anything with the teacher in drop-off, pick-up lines, hallways, lunch, etc.

Elementary (Preschool – 5th Grade) Discipline Policy (includes K-6th School Age Care)

At the elementary level, students are learning the basics of what it means to be wise. During this time, our desire is that students would learn to be obedient to those in authority and to show respect in all interactions. Other actions that would show that a student is growing in wisdom at this level include:

- Walking and using appropriate volume in hallways
- Finding ways to be helpful
- Saying please and thank you
- Acting with a servant's heart

Levels of Misbehavior

1st Level ("Simple" Misbehaviors)

Teachers will give clear instruction on what behavior is expected of students in the classroom and other times during the day. They will instruct students and remind them when unacceptable actions occur and will contact parents/guardians to work to solve in-class issues.

Repeated behavior violations will receive consequences to remind them that they are not following the expectations and rules. Consequences at this level may include being asked to sit away from the group, a seating change, etc. Repeated Level 1 behavior infractions will be documented in FACTS. Level 1 offenses include, but not limited to:

- Disruption of class
- Failure to follow instructions
- Not keeping hands to one's self
- Inappropriate language or joking
- Disrespectful language or action
- Dress code infraction

2nd Level ("Foolish" Misbehaviors)

If a child continues to not follow the rules and expectations after warnings and minor consequences, further consequences will be implemented and the administration will be consulted. Consequences at this level could include missing recess (think walking), eating lunch away from the class, or spending some time in the office. Level 2 offenses will be documented in FACTS.

- Repeated level 1 offenses
- Cheating or lying
- Defacing of school property
- Vulgarity or profanity

3rd Level ("High Level" Misbehaviors)

A child that continues with inappropriate actions after receiving the more serious consequences in Level 2, or does something more serious, such as the offenses listed below, they will receive consequences that are intended to let the child and parent/guardian know that they are a serious violation of academy policy. Students committing a Level 3 event will be immediately removed from the classroom and required to leave school as soon as the parent/guardian can come to the school. The administration will then determine the appropriate consequences. These behaviors will result in suspension (in or out of school), probation, or expulsion. Level 3 offenses include but are not limited to the following:

- Open defiance of disrespect of teachers or administration
- Bullying (repeated mean behavior toward another student)
- Fighting, or extreme disruptive behavior
- Gross vulgarity or profanity
- Biting
- Stealing
- Vandalism
- Any other aggressive or unsafe behaviors
- The use, possession or distribution of illegal drugs, alcohol, tobacco products, fireworks, explosives, or weapons of any kind.
- Pulling a fire alarm or tampering with safety equipment.

Probation

A student may be placed on probation for any of the following reasons:

1. When showing insufficient academic progress due to neglect of studies;
2. When showing insufficient progress from student or parent/guardian to improve social/emotional or behavioral development;
3. When parents/guardians fail to comply with and support the disciplinary procedures of the academy.

Probation gives students opportunities to correct their problem. A student on probation loses all positions of responsibility, which may or may not be restored after probation ends. Students may not participate in athletics or other extra-curricular activities when on probation.

Suspension and Dismissal of a Student

Parents/guardians must respond to behavior and disciplinary actions in cooperation with the child's teacher and principal. Action plans within the home that support behavior changes and discipleship are equally essential. LCCA partners with parents/guardians for the discipleship of their children and cannot manage student behavior effectively unless parent/guardian are engaged in behavior development improvement.

Where LCCA administration and teachers request testing from medical, educational or psychological referrals, parents/guardians must document the steps taken to provide support for their child. If parents/guardians do not take appropriate measures within a two week time frame, the student may be suspended until corrective actions are taken. LCCA may dismiss a student when the needs of a student cannot be met by the academy regardless of educational behavioral, social/emotional development plans.

In-School Suspension

If in-school suspension becomes necessary, parents/guardians will be notified. Suspension is determined by the LCCA administration. There will be a charge of up to $50 to compensate the staff supervising in-school suspension for their time. Students are required to make up any work missed in class, but will be subject to a late penalty grade. The student will receive attendance credit for the day.

Out-of-School Suspension

Due to repeated and/or serious disciplinary infractions, out-of-school suspension may be assigned. Students are required to make up any work missed in class, but will be subject to a late penalty grade. Students must turn in missed assignments within one day of the student's return to school. The decision for out-of-school suspension will be decided by the head of school, principal, or director.

Dismissal

Lenoir City Christian Academy reserves the right to expel any student if LCCA determines that the program is not meeting the needs of the student, the student's presence poses a threat of the welfare of others, or if the student is unable to adjust to the academy's rules/structure, routine, and social interaction. A two week notice will be provided; however, if the reason for dismissal/expulsion is due to a serious safety concern, the student will not be allowed in the school/classroom during the two week review period. Every effort will be made to work with the student and their family.

The following situations will necessitate the removal of a student from Lenoir City Christian Academy:

1. Aggressive behavior which threatens the safety and well-being of self-and/or others in the program. Well-being can be defined as emotional as well as physical.
2. A student requiring constant 1-on-1 attention from the teacher.
3. A student showing disrespect toward a teacher or another student.
4. Nonpayment.
5. Failure of the parent/guardians or student to follow written policies.
6. If the safety of the students or the program is compromised a student will receive out of school suspension, pending review of dismissal.
7. Any other conduct that exhibits behavior contrary to the Statement of Faith.
